BUCKEYE TRAVEL HOCKEY LEAGUE NAMES ALL STAR TEAM FOR U18 MIDGET DIVISION

From: Division Director, Michael Brunetti

The Buckeye Travel Hockey League's season culminated this weekend with their division championship tournament and the naming of the league's top players to its All Star Team.

The Dayton, Ohio, Bombers beat the Athens, Ohio, Bobcats in the tournament final 3-0, after finishing league play in second place with a season record of 15-5-4. Prior to the season ending tournament four Bombers' players were selected to the All Star Team; Goalie Tyler Huffman, and Forwards Kurt Grove, Luke McCammant, Johnathan Shininger and Defenseman Logan Johnson.

Athens Bobcats, having placed fifth in league play with a season record of 9-10-5, surprised the league's regular season champions Kentucky's Louisville Stallions U18 team (17-1-6), in the semi finals beating them 5-2. The Bobcats had three players named to the All Star Team; goalie Jacob Bloomfield, Forward Kevin Deal and Defenseman Kyle Dean.

The Louisville Stallions U18 team, having won the regular season championship with only one loss placed six players on the All Star Team; Goalie Nick Nuss, Forwards Alex Harmata and Alex Senn, and Defensemen Burke Davis, Patrick McCrum and Jon Turner.

The Louisville Stallions U16 team, placed third during the regular season with a league record of 11-8-5 and had five of its players named to the All Star Team; Forwards Jared Boos, Robbie Hennessey, Tyler Johnson and Defensemen Karl Bergmeister and Teagan Pepper.

Cleveland Ohio's "AA" Lumberjacks ended their league play 10-10-4 and had three players selected to the All Star Team; Forwards Frederick Borsuk and Ian Reffert, and Defenseman Brandon Hein.

Rounding out the league's All Star Team selections were players from the Northern Kentucky Norsemen; Goalie Connor Osowski and Forward Erik Lubansky and Dayton Ohio's Bluehawks' Tyler Whipp who played both Forward and Defense.
